

Final Assessment of Robotics Week

Group Number: _____. Group Members: _____. My Name: _____

	Engaging	Developing	Demonstrating	Exemplary
Maintenance of Materials	Lego Kit is disorganized; pieces are regularly found to be missing or out of place	Lego Kit is somewhat organized; pieces may be found at workstation after class	Lego Kit is organized but pieces are found at workstation after class	Kit is organized and all materials are accounted before construction and after disassembly
Working With Others	Is able to engage with other members of the group but struggles to collaborate	Rarely allows others to present ideas but is able recognize and support the best ideas. Respects other members of the group and tries to make sure that the project is truly a group effort.	Almost always allows others to present ideas and is able recognize and support the best ideas. Respects other members of the group and tries to make sure that the project is truly a group effort.	Always allows others to present ideas and is able recognize and support the best ideas. Respects other members of the group and tries to make sure that the project is truly a group effort.
Pride/Quality of Work	Final product reflects little effort by group with little to no motivation by leader	Final product shows effort by group with some motivation by leader	High quality work showing strong effort by group	Final product represents work of highest quality and the group's best effort
Observation Sheets	Observation sheet has been started but lacks detail and reflection.	Observation sheet somewhat completed. With developing detail and reflection.	Observation sheet somewhat complete in an organized manner, demonstrating understanding and in detail.	Observation sheet complete in an organized manner with lots of detail and an exemplary reflection.